-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-38 are in the application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 8, line 3, there is no proper antecedent for "said Peltier-effect device".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

5. Claims 1, 2, 5-10, 13, 16 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Ryon.

Ryon discloses a fuel system for propulsion device including an engine; a fuel storage reservoir configured to contain fuel and being in communication with the engine; and a thermoelectric device 2 disposed in thermal communication with the fuel at 4 to remove heat from the fuel. The thermoelectric device is connected to a source of electric power at 20.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 3, 4, 14, 15, and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ryon in view of Wickman et al.

Wickman et al discloses a marine engine including a lift pump and a high pressure pump as well as a fuel filter. In view of these disclosures, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to provide the fuel cooling system of Ryon on a marine propulsion system generally as taught by Wickman et al. The source of electric power for the thermoelectric device is deemed to have been an obvious matter of design choice to one skilled in the art. The fuel cooling system of Ryon is disclosed as being usable with any type of gas powered engine. The application of the system of Ryon on a marine system would have been an obvious matter of design choice to one skilled in the art for the reasons as taught by Ryon.

Allowable Subject Matter

8. Claims 11 and 12 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

9. Claims 19-38 are allowed.
